

STOP Sinclair Broadcasting (and others) from abusing their use of public airwaves. We have entered very dangerous territory. GIANT media conglomerates who own so many tv and radio stations across the country should not be allowed to wield their power and influence in an effort to manipulate the American public by airing only programs which conform to the political views and ideologies of the people at the "top of the pyramid!"